Forecast for Monday 29 Nov 2021

Weather: A dry, bright and frosty start to Monday morning but becoming increasingly cloudy during the morning, as milder air starts to push in from the west during the afternoon. It will become quite dull by late afternoon with light rain possible. Precipitation will mainly be light and patchy with a few drier spells during the evening and remaining quite dull.

Chance of cloud free mountain/hill tops above 600m: 90% in the morning but reducing to 30% by the evening as patchy low cloud becomes more broken and spreads east across the area during the late afternoon.

Visibility: Good visibility through the morning, however it will turn cloudier and duller through the afternoon especially in the west as cloud becomes increasingly thick above around 500m, though perhaps more scattered around 600m in the east. Visibility will become poorer in any light and patchy rain later in the afternoon.
